

The Salt Spring Institute for Sustainability
Education & Action (I-SEA) Presents:

A Local Food Extravaganza to Launch I-SEA's
2009 Eco-mentoring Program
Building on 6 years of Experience working with Students!

The I-SEA 100 km Organic Feast

Saturday, November 29th
6:00-9:00pm at Gulf Island Secondary School

INCLUDES:

- Buffet-style organic vegetarian dinner Prepared by Chef Bruce Wood
- Selection of local wines and beer
- Speakers, music, mini-screening of eco-film
- Art exhibition and auction of Eco-Quilt by Bonnie Dalziel
- Eco-Fashion Show by GISS Global Action Students
- $100's in door prizes: paintings, spa packages, stone sculpture, cooking lessons, and much more!

EVENT SPONSORS:

Tickets Prices:

- $100 per person
- $175 per couple
- $350 for a family of four
- $800 per table of ten
- Sponsorships Available

Beautiful Handmade Quilt
by Bonnie Dalziel
Bidding starts at $3000
Displayed at :
Island Savings Credit U.

Tickets available at The Local in Ganges and at
I-SEA Office, 1206B Grace
Point Square on Wed.'s
10am-2pm.
Pay by cash or check only (make out to I-SEA).

MENU AT: <http://www.i-sea.org> - CALL FOR TIX: 537-4400
(Tax Receipts available for 1/2 of Ticket Price)